Gospel Reading Challenge. Starting tomorrow, read one chapter from the book of John everyday as you learn more about who Jesus is and what He has done. Write down at least one thing that stands out to you about Jesus and His nature or character everyday. Ask God for the power to live out what you have learned through the life of Jesus in your life.

Gospel Living Challenge. Live out the nature and character of Jesus in your life everyday this week. Give kindness, offer forgiveness, display mercy, and show love as Jesus did. Spend time in prayer for students or family members who need to see Jesus in your life. Practice integrity and purity in everything that you do. Represent Jesus in your thoughts, words, and actions.

Gospel Sharing Challenge. You can live out your faith as a reflection of Jesus to show others the goodness of God, but we have also been called to verbally tell others about Jesus as well. The good news or "gospel" of Jesus is that He is the way to God. Not our own work or lifestyle, only faith in Him. Share with at least one person this week about who Jesus is, what He has done, and how they can begin a relationship with Him.

Ice Breaker Question: Would you rather laugh every time you burp or burp every time you laugh?
